- One of the best TAs I've had at NYU. Accessible, thorough, quick to respond, and incredibly clear during recitations. I feel like my understanding jumped from 30% to 100% after each recitation thanks to David.
- He was very helpful in explaining every concept
- David made the class very engaging by having everyone participate and was very thorough
- David, I said it on your other survey. you are great! seriously having as a TA helped me understand so much.

- Excellent explanation of course material and questions. No improvement suggestions.
- Used a lot of visual representation such as annotated diagrams or cartoons that helped understand material
- Send out recitation slides prior to recitation so that we can annotate our slides.
- David was an incredible instructor. There is nothing I would suggest to improve the class
- David was very intelligent about the matters he was teaching us and knew the processes in so much detail that he could answer any question directed at him.
- David was very accessible during and outside of recitation and made sure to explain all concepts clearly. I don't have other comments about improvements.
- I would not have understood the content had it not been for David! He was so amazing and an excellent recitation instructor. I am so glad I had him.

- Recitations for this course were incredible. Necessary information was very well summarized and clarified- this was definitely an element of the course that significantly aided in my ability to succeed. David has been a wonderful instructor, always available through email and always very concise and straightforward in his explanations.
